I am registering my child for "Time for Two" at the Sunrise Mothers' Center. I understand that there are no refunds or credits nor are there make-up classes for any individual absences. I agree/ my child's adult companion agrees to be responsible for my child at all times, to assist with clean-up during class, to provide snack on a rotating basis with other class members and to abide by rules and regulations established by the program. I understand no unregistered children may be brought to class.
