Your child and a special companion (parent, grandparent or caregiver) are invited to spend quality time together in our toddler-oriented surroundings. Our cheery classroom contains age-appropriate table and floor toys for gross and fine motor development, easels, a sand table, and kitchen and workshop areas. Our kid-comfortable tables and chairs provide the perfect setting for playing with puzzles, Play-doh and other manipulatives, doing arts and crafts, eating snacks, and listening to stories. Our carpeted area welcomes you and your toddler during unstructured play periods and for circle songs and games, finger plays, parachute antics, and bubble blowing. Our small classes are grouped closely by age, and are led by enthusiastic and experienced teachers. Activities are selected by the teacher, based on the ages and abilities of those in each group. Students provide snack and drink for the class on a rotating basis.

The Spring 2008 cycle will include weekday and Saturday classes. The cycle consists of 10 classes for the drop-off and 15 for all other, beginning the first week of February. Our classes follow the schedule of the Bellmore schools. There are no make-up classes for individual absences. You may not bring unregistered children to class.
